

CONNECT / JULY

July 17-27, 2023

Team members will travel to various villages, ministering to children through kids camps, in orphanages, and day care facilities. These teams have an up-close opportunity to interact and connect with Nigeriens while building relationships with both children and adults through their service. Scheduled during summer break, this mission is the perfect opportunity for students and young adults to minister in a fourth world nation while sharing the good news of the Gospel. This mission is suitable for all ages 15 and up.
